

THINGS TO DO IN MUMBAI TODAY

Mumbai Mirror | Sep 24, 2014, 04.14 AM IST

A-

A+

Homes in Goregaon, Mumbai

oberoirealty.com/ogc - Luxury 3 BHKs by Oberoi Realty

Ads by Google

Weep at a Greek tragedy

Check out what can you do in Mumbai today.

Weep at a Greek tragedy

Ben Power, who had previously adapted Henrik Ibsen's Emperor and Galiean for the National Theatre in London, brings to life Medea, written by great Greek tragedian Euripides in 431 BC. It's the story of Medea, a woman who wishes to take revenge on her unfaithful husband. The screening of the National Theatre production stars Helen McCrory (Narcissa Malfoy to all the Harry Potter fans) in the titular role.

Where: Dance Theatre Godrej, NCPA, Nariman Point When: 6.30 pm Entry: Rs 500 Call: 22824567

mushroom and tuna chilli salad in a bread, wrap or croissant. They have redone their sides menu too, throwing in olives and jalapeno tartines, cheesy potato pops and chicken wings.

Book Now

Aerosolgrafia workshop

Painting with a brush is passe. Spray cans are your new tools. In a workshop conducted by acrylic spray painter Sunil Gogia, participants will be guided on creating original works using a technique whose origins are traced to Mexico City. The class is open to beginners, who must bring along an apron or an old T-shirt. Gogia will begin the session with an introduction to the usage of spray cans and a brief history of the art form before he screens videos on the technique.

Where: Space 118, Mazgaon When: September 27, 11 am to 2 pm Call: 9819050329 Price: Rs 2,000 (inclusive of materials)

Plan Ahead

Go on a treasure hunt

The good folks at Some Place Else have organised an exciting hunt that's guaranteed to pique your curiosity about the city. While this is no National Treasure, it's likely that you'll come away discovering something new about Mumbai's history via hidden clues. Register on www.bit.ly/1q0aokG.

Where: Cross Maidan, Churchgate When: September 28, 2 pm Price: Rs 270