NEXT week, the Indian art world is taking off to the UAE. The Abu Dhabi Art Fair, called AD Art, has invited Ashwin Thadani to be the curator of the 2019 edition of the 'New Horizon' section focusing on India galleries. Some of the galleries in this section are Nature Morte, Vadehra, Espace, Galerie Isa, Grosvenor London and Aicon NY. Thadani has further invited a group of Indian collectors for a programme that will be packed with exciting events such as a private breakfast at Louvre. There will be Kiran Nadar, Kavita Singh, Indira Burman, Shalini Passi, Akshay Chudasama, Saloni Doshi and Ashiesh Shah. After Abu Dhabi, Shah and some of the collectors will take off to Dubai, where Shah will speak on the "Power of Design" at the Dubai Design Week.
