Ravi Vazirani with Amrita Puri
IT may have taken its time to open its first store in Mumbai, but the founders of one of India's leading rug companies—NK Chaudhry and his children Yogesh and Kavita — ensured the opening night party made up for the delay. A favourite with every leading architecture firm, the launch party of the Chaudhry's store at the Sun Mill compound saw every leading architect show up for a bit of gawk and stare.

Guests included Sanjay and Nina Puri, Rajeev Kasai, Nitin Kilawala, Chandrasteekhar Kanekar, Akif Habb, Saloni Doshi and Chirag Dewan, among others. Ravi Vazirani—who has designed the store—brought in his gang of friends, including Amrita Puri, Shradha MUSALE, Rooshad Shroff and Samson Pardinas. The sunset cocktail eventually turned into a late-night party.
